NEW SOUTHERN MUSIC BOOK.

JUST PUBLISHED:

TABOR;

OR, THE

Richmond Collection of Sacred Music. By R. M. McINTOSH, of Virginia.

ASSENTIALLY Southern in its main features, TABOR nevertheless contains a choice selection of the best Northern copy-right Music. Its author, for feur years an officer of the Confederate army, composed many stirring pieces in moments snatched during its marchings and counter marchings in Vir ginia. The dirge used at the funeral of Gen. T. J. Jackson, (Stonewall,) May 17th, 1363, was from his pen, and is included in this col

"Mr. McIntosh," says the Richmond Whig, "is well known throughout the South as an author and teacher of finished excellence, with a musical reputation rarely attained by any man of his age in this country. In the South he stands at the very head of Churen music, so one disputing the position with him."

The book embraces every thing of value of Southern or South-Western origin, much of which is now for the first time.

which is now for the first time reduced to a written form. Its variety is great-embracing all metres in use, in every key and every variety of measure—with a full elementary department and fine collection of new anthems, set pieces and sentences. It contains nearly 800 closely printed pages, neatly and tasteful ly gotten up, well printed and bound.

Price, ветан, $1-33. $12-60 per dozen.
Can be obtained through all book-sellers, or will be mailed by the Publishers to any part of the United States, post free, on receipt of
